

ADMINISTRATIVE - INTERNAL USE ONLY

16 March 1984

Tom Cormack
Executive Secretary

History Staff Bi-Weekly

Ken, assisted by Bob, completed his study on "Control of Intelligence Assets in Wartime" for the DDCI. It was forwarded on 5 March.

He also has attended a series of meetings dealing with the fate of the OSS records. Action now rests with the National Archives to write a procedural letter and with IMS to make arrangements for the transfer of the first batch of documents.

STAT Ken attended a half-day seminar at the National Archives on 13 March on the subject of Documentation Standards. He has also been consulting with [redacted] about selective declassification of historical records.

[redacted] completed a review of History Staff holdings bearing on counterinsurgency for [redacted] who was looking for material on Agency experience in this field for possible use by [redacted] DDI/OGI, who are preparing a study manual for DDO/IAD.

STAT
STAT
STAT
STAT

Also completed was a short memo for the Chairman of the Critical Intelligence Problems Committee on the historical background of the current committee's predecessor.

Bob has finished the first week of a three-week part-time course at OTE on Intelligence Successes and Failures.

Don has arranged to interview [redacted] on the subject of targeting and to consult with [redacted] until recently the RMO for OD&E, on two of the later overhead programs.

STAT
STAT

Diane has received back from DDO the last batch of documents from a series of requests by Dr. Wayne Thompson, an Air Force historian. This case has been running since November 1980, but she expects to be able to close it out this month.

[redacted] has rearranged the office files and inventoried our holdings of the paraphrased histories submitted to the Senate Select Committee in 1975.

STAT

ADMINISTRATIVE - INTERNAL USE ONLY

ADMINISTRATIVE - INTERNAL USE ONLY

A building electrician has been in our area for much of this week. He has rearranged our power outlets and Wang connections--and also disrupted our work.

will represent the staff at the Director's speech today.

STAT

The Society for History in the Federal Government will hold its annual meeting on 11 April. This is an all-day affair held at the Library of Congress. Ken, Bob, and possibly Don, plan to attend.

STAT
STAT

History Staff

Distribution:

Orig - Adse

1 - JKM

1 - RK

1 - FILE

~~1~~ - HS CHRONO

ADMINISTRATIVE - INTERNAL USE ONLY